An event to match schools and educator preparation programs with interested teachers, future teachers, paraprofessionals, and administrators.

Employers: Host a table to recruit potential teachers, administrators, and paraprofessionals from Vermont and across New England.

Educators: Meet with potential employers to learn more about their school and open positions, whether new to the field or looking to change roles.

Future Educators: Meet with educator preparation programs from across the state to learn about pathways to teaching.

Registration information to follow.

Contact patrick.halladay@uvm.edu with questions.

Co-sponsors: Vermont Agency of Education, Vermont Department of Labor, Addison Central Supervisory District, Vermont Principals Association, University of Vermont Department of Education, Champlain College and the Teacher Apprenticeship Program, and Vermont School Human Resources Professionals.
